LOCAL MATTERS.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY.—From our reports this morning the probabilities are that the weather to-day will be clear or partly cloudy.

STABBING AT BROAD STREET.—Frank Gallagher, a police officer, yesterday morning charged with unlawfully and feloniously assaulting, cutting, and stabbing John Miller with intent to kill, etc. It appeared from the testimony that there was a picnic at Weimer's Park (Baker's old place) on Monday, and among those who were in attendance were Messrs. Gallagher, John Miller, Richard Miller, Thomas J. McDonough, and others. While at the picnic John Miller got into a difficulty with some one, and in speaking of it afterwards mentioned Gallagher's name. On the way back to Richmond, and when the party were somewhere near the corner of Broad and Main streets, great words were passed between Miller and Gallagher, which finally led to blows, and Miller struck Gallagher with a stone which was tied up in the end of a handkerchief. They then (as was proven in the courtroom) fell, Miller on top. Richard Miller, brother of John, then ran up to take part in the affair, possibly to assist his brother. McDonough also got into the affair in some way, and struck Richard Miller over the head with an umbrella. John Miller and Gallagher were parted, and about this time Miller was stabbed, but by whom did not seem to be very clear. He was badly stabbed in the left breast, and the wound, testified that the wounds were of a serious nature.

The case came up yesterday on a motion for bail, which, after a tedious examination, was granted in the sum of $700, with Henry Kuhn as surety. The trial was continued until the 9th of September.

Thomas McDonough, who was charged with assaulting John Miller with an umbrella, was discharged, there being no evidence against him.

The case of John Miller, who was charged with assaulting Frank Gallagher with a handkerchief, was also continued until the 9th proximo.

At a late hour last night young Miller was in a critical condition, with the chances against him. He was suffering great pain, though it was thought he would live through the night. No one was allowed to see him, and so great a number of inquirers that a policeman was detailed to prevent any one from endeavoring to enter the house.

PARTED AFTER FIVE YEARS OF HAPPINESS.—Yesterday was a very tedious day at the Police Court, but a very profligate one for the newspaper reporters. About 1 o'clock the case of William Banks, a tall and athletic man, was called. He was charged with trespassing upon the premises of and threatening to assault and kill Sallie Lee. It appeared from Sallie's statement that although William had been her lover for a long time she had at last become weary of his attentions and decided to bestow the life which she had partly spent with him upon a better-looking lover. A little misunderstanding arose, and in order to get rid of him she caused his arrest upon what she believed to be a bona fide charge.

William kept very quiet until his companion of five years had concluded her tirade of abuse and finished her story of his shortcomings, etc., and then the Justice addressed him:

Mr. White: Well, sir, what do you do for a living?

William: I work in the rolling-mill, sir.

Mr. White: Are you white or black?

William: Colored, sir.

Mr. White: Well, what is the trouble you have gotten into?

William, in reply, made a very clear statement, as the result showed, but its truth had such an effect upon Sallie that she couldn't stand it any longer, and began to contradict the witness and to give her version of the affair. The Justice was satisfied with Sallie's statement, in which he said that they had lived happily together for five years, and until somebody else began to be attractive and the subject of matrimony was discussed. Then they parted. The Justice ended the matter in his court by letting William go—Joe Cox and other witnesses having testified to his former peaceful and good character.

But Sallie was told to take her seat. When the court adjourned, Sallie was admonished by the Justice and then left.

ABOUT A VALUABLE GOLD WATCH.—About the 7th of July, Sarah J. Childress and Mary Needham were arrested and brought before Justice White on the charge of stealing a handsome gold watch from the hands of a watchmaker. The evidence upon that occasion was insufficient to convict either of the parties charged with the offense, but the testimony was to the effect that the accused occupied the same house, and that they were in the room from which the watch was said to have been stolen the day it was found. The matter died for a time, but missed.

The case was given into the hands of Officer John Wren, who undertook to find the missing property for Miss Arthur.

On Monday the detective received information that John Phelps (who is by-the-way a brother of Mary Needham) had offered for sale a handsome gold watch to one of the junk dealers in Cary street. He soon found Phelps, arrested him, and found the missing watch upon his person. Yesterday the prisoner was brought before Justice White, charged with having stolen the watch, etc.

When asked by the Justice if he had anything to say, he replied that he had not stolen the watch. He was further asked if he could, as he required, give a satisfactory account as to how it came into his possession. He said he could, but declined to do so. The Justice then sent him on to the grand jury of the Hustings Court on two charges—viz., having stolen the watch, and also having received it, knowing the same to have been stolen.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Mary Needham, who was soon found by Detective Wren and brought into court. The witnesses in the mean time had been recognized to appear at the Hustings Court, and had gone away; and so the case was continued.

ENTERED AT THE CUSTOM-HOUSE.—The American schooner Olivia Jameson, Captain F. A. Jameson, from Windsor, Nova Scotia, with lump gypsum, to Staples & Blair, entered at the custom-house yesterday. The British schooner Gerant, Captain Ross, from Baltimore, in ballast also entered at the custom-house, and will load with flour for Rio Grande do Sul.

NOMINATING CONVENTIONS.—The delegates to the Congressional Nominating Convention for this district will assemble at the Exchange Hotel at noon to-day.

The Henrico County Nominating Convention will meet at the county court-house at 12 o'clock to-day.

BADLY INJURED.—Yesterday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock a fine boy named Charles Walcott, while playing on one of the cars, was further asked if he could, as he required, give a satisfactory account as to how it came into his possession. He said he could, but declined to do so. The Justice then sent him on to the grand jury of the Hustings Court on two charges—viz., having stolen the watch, and also having received it, knowing the same to have been stolen.

A CRUEL CHILD-TRAP—Caution to Parents.
Editors Dispatch: Last Saturday a week ago, as the 6:30 A. M. train on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad was rattling out of Richmond, a window about the centre (on the left-hand side entering from the rear) of the car No. 30, being to a minute or two, came down with a crash on the fingers of a little child resting on the window-sill, crushing and cutting them, and pinning them fast as if in a vice. The little sufferer screamed in agony, while two or three powerful men tried to raise the window and release him. But owing to the spring below being rusty it was fully a minute or two before those kind gentlemen could get the window up.

Ten days have elapsed, and the little sufferer has not recovered from his painful injuries. I called the conductor's attention to the incident and the window, and begged him to have it fixed, lest some other child or baby might be caught similarly.

Last Saturday I witnessed the same scene on the same train and in the same car. About the same place that identical window came crashing down with its sharp edge on a little girl's hand, cutting and bruising her fingers most cruelly. It was fully a minute or two before the kind gentlemen could get the window raised. But owing to the spring below being rusty it was fully a minute or two before those kind gentlemen could get the window up.

General Wickham is a brave man, and necessarily a humane one, and if he is in the city I know he will look to this matter, and prevent in future such painful scenes.
